TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston.)

Madrid, 30th—The Minister of Justice will lay before the Cortes a Bill to deal with the Anarchists, and the Liberals will support it.

Bucharest, 30th—It is known here that Russia has recently sold 6,000 rifles to the Turcomans, who have revolted against the Ameer and routed him.

Berlin, 30th—The Prussian General Avensleben has just died, aged 83.

London, 30th—The British Consuls in Russia have notified the Jews leaving the Empire not to go to England as work is scarce there.

Paris, 30th—Many families are leaving the city, fearing fresh explosions. The authorities met this morning to adopt severe measures to prevent fresh outrages.

Eleven, not twelve, hours is the limit fixed by the Senate for the daily work of women in factories.

Porto Novo (West Coast of Africa) 30th.—The natives, without any provocation fired on a French gunboat conveying the Governor of the French possessions. This incident it is feared, will give rise to serious disturbances.

Southampton, 30th.—The North German Lloyd steamer Eider has been tugged into this port.

Prague, 30th.—Serious disturbances have taken place owing to a collision between the police and the mob. Several persons were wounded.

Quilimane, 30th.—The rebels in the neighbourhood made a desperate combined attack on the town but were repulsed and put to flight.

Berlin, 30th.—The Government was defeated to-day in the Reichstag on the question of restoring the estimates for the construction of new war vessels.

A balloon made by Germans crossed the Polish frontier to-day.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

London, March 5th.

I deliberately allowed the French mail to go last night without writing, for the good reason that a quiet Saturday morning with the weekly papers and some morning papers were essential to the completion of some subjects. You may in the meanwhile receive your South American Journal, which contains most of the financial subjects of interest such as the eternal Uruguay question, the condition of the firm of Murrietas, the letter of Dr. Plaza denying the statement originally made by the B. Ayres correspondent of the London Standard, that your Government Director of Railways had said that what the Government wanted was to ruin the Argentine railways, so that they might fall into the hands of the State. Above all, there is the correspondence in the city article of the Times relating to the bankruptcy of Messrs Hale and Company and the filing of a petition here by one of the partners, Mr. Sanford. In case you have not already published this correspondence, or only part of it from the South American Journal, you will find it amongst the enclosures herewith, complete to date. You will also receive two articles from this morning's Financial News in regard to the Murrieta business and the Montevideo Municipal Loan respectively, also a letter on the English Bank arrangement.

The correspondence in the Times in relation to Mr. Sanford's affairs has revived the old question as to the prudence of bolstering up large concerns and allowing smaller people to fail as of no consequence to the high financial world. Long ago I repeated in this column the London Stock Exchange growl, that the depression in the market was all owing to Mr. Lidderdale's officiousness in propping up Barings. Had the house been allowed to go, it is said, and supposing that a few banks had failed in consequence, it would have been all over long since, and "we" the brokers —would not now be starving. All this is again repeated in the Financial News of to-day in reference to Murrietas and in a lesser degree to Messrs Hale and Company as represented, and only as far as the firm is represented, by Mr. Sanford, an American citizen now in London. And the same view seems to be taken to-day by our respectable Unionist friend the Economist. In reference to Messrs Hale and Company it is replied with some justice that the question is not one of bolstering the rich and despising the poor, but simply of the advantages of a friendly liquidation compared with the expenses and delays of a judicial one. To this the answer, as you will see, comes, that in the proposed friendly liquidation there is the wife of one of the partners concerned, whose claim will consume a large portion of the funds that should be at the disposal of the creditors. How all outside opinion is estopped. The chief objection of the Economist to interference with the natural results of reckless financing is not the salvation of any particular firm but the general lowering of the moral tone and consequent imitations abroad, not by private firms but by governments. In short, in public and private, the Economist thinks that Mr. Lidderdale's well-meant arrangement has given birth to a crowd of "conversions," "reductions" and "moratoriums." All this is in reference not only to Messrs Hale & Co's affairs but to the final decision of the Mexican and South American Trust Company not to take over Messrs. Murrieta & Co's obligations. What the consequences will be or what they may be in the opinion of our financial authorities you will see by extracts from the Financial News etc.

This evening there is decidedly less excitement in the Coal market. I have just been talking with a gentleman in the trade who is of opinion that the whole thing is a purely artificial scare naturally taken advantage of by the London dealers. The silly public is most to blame. The gentleman I refer to told me he could not supply the people—he had not horses enough; and if they were so frightened of a famine they must send their own horses and carts, and load the coal themselves. Some of them did. The miners playfully thought they could have a fortnight's relaxation from work whilst the prices gradually hardened. They are evidently frightened at the scare they have created by a mere threat of a strike a week hence. They ought to have seen that with an annual output of 200 millions of tons, a fortnight's stoppage, even if it were general, would have little effect and only temporarily raise prices just sufficient to encourage foreign supplies. There is a greater probability than ever to-night that there will be no strike at all and prices will be at their ordinary level on the 12th. The nominal price for export is 10s., but 12 and 14s. are asked for casual orders. The average retail price in London for good coal is to-day 35s. This does not include the prices charged by street hawkers to poor people.

In London at this moment the subject of interest next in order to the coal famine is the result of the County Council elections at this moment in full vigour. At 8 p.m., when this sheet of paper is leaving Charing Cross station on its way to Lisbon, the lists close. I see great blackboards in Club anterooms already chalked with the different names of the London districts to receive the names of the successful candidates, as the results are declared to-night. The political result of these elections is a new and important feature. I assure you parliamentary debates are quite unnoticed in spite of the return of the G. O. M., his amazing health, his speech on the Nyanza railway, his blotting pad and all the old paraphernalia. If the Moderates gain the County Council elections, it may change the Government arrangements; but at present the general opinion is that about May, after the principal financial matters are settled for the year, the Government will quietly dissolve itself and Parliament without any fuss or pressure. After the new elections, probably in June, there will be a short session for the winning party, whichever it is, to seat itself comfortably, and then an early prorogation.

THE AFFAIRS OF S. B. HALE AND COMPANY.

(From the "Times.")

The subjoined letter relates to the action taken by the International Bank of London against Mr. C. H. Sanford. The danger of allowing it to be supposed that if men fail for a sufficiently large sum they ought to be treated differently from small bankrupts has received more than one illustration of late, and Mr. Wanklyn's remarks on this head are much to the point:—

The Natal and Nova Cruz (Brazilian) Railway (Limited), 4, Finsbury-circus, London, E.C., March 1.

Sir,

The action taken by the International Bank of London compelling Mr. C. H. Sanford, of the firm of Messrs. Samuel B. Hale and Co., to file his own petition has been much canvassed during the past ten days, and the letter in your issue of to-day from Messrs. Norton, Rose, Norton, and Co. will be read with interest.

I should like to ask Mr. Norton, is it not the case that a majority of the creditors have joint-account transactions with Messrs. S. B. Hale and Co., and are subscribers to the Baring Guarantee Fund? If this be so, the intimate connexion between Mr. Sanford and the house of Baring might well cause these creditors to stay their hand, but the International Bank, I know, did not subscribe to the Baring Guarantee Fund, and it seems to me that Mr. Gwinner, the managing director of the bank, in carrying matters to a logical conclusion with Mr. Sanford is not only doing his duty to his shareholders, but, in one sense, is performing a public service.

Of late it seems to have been assumed that in financial matters, at any rate, there is one law for the rich man and another for the man less well-to do, and that any man may overtrade with comparative impunity provided that he does so on a sufficiently large scale. I think Mr. Norton has been misinformed as to the unanimity of the creditors, for I understand that another bank who have neither joint-account transactions with Messrs. S. B. Hale and Co. nor are subscribers to the guarantee fund also refused to sign the proposed agreement. It would be absurd for me to discuss points of law with Mr. Norton; but does he seriously suggest that the International Bank have no remedy against Messrs. S. B. Hale and Co. in the Argentine Republic?

I shall be surprised if this proves to be so, and in any event the statements that have been circulated during the past week for the purpose of affecting the credit of the International Bank must alienate all public sympathy from Mr. Sanford and his friends.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
James Leslie Wanklyn.

The following letters reply to that of Mr. J. L. Wanklyn in yesterday's article:—

57½, Old Broad-street, E. C.,
March 2nd.

Sir,

Statements having appeared in the public Press to the effect that bankruptcy proceedings had been commenced against the firm of Messrs. Samuel B. Hale and Co., we wrote to you, in our professional capacity as solicitors of the firm, on February 29 (the letter which appeared in your issue of March 1), to state the exact facts.

These were that no proceedings in bankruptcy had been commenced against the firm; that according to the advice of counsel (both partners in the firm being American citizens, the firm being constituted according to Argentine law, and one of the partners being domiciled in the Argentine Republic), no such proceedings could be supported; that owing to the action of the International Bank of London, Mr. Sanford, one of the partners (who is an American citizen residing here), had been obliged to present his petition, and that we hoped bankruptcy would be avoided.

We did not attempt to discuss the propriety of, or impute motives for, the action of the International Bank of London, Mr. Gwinner, or the Baring guarantors, nor did we suggest seriously or otherwise anything about the remedies of creditors against Messrs. S. B. Hale and Co. in the Argentine Republic.

We consider that it is no part of our professional duty to enter into discussion of these subjects, still less that of the assumed alienation of public sympathy from Mr. Sanford and his friends, which we venture to doubt.

In answer to Mr. Wanklyn's direct questions, we only know of one creditor of the firm who has transactions on joint account with Messrs. S. B. Hale and Co. We believe some of them are subscribers to the Baring guarantee fund, and it is the fact that one other bank besides the International Bank of London (the claims of the two together very little exceed £100,000) has not at present signed the agreement for dealing with the affairs of the firm in a friendly way.

We would only remark that, whether Baring guarantors, parties dealing with the firm on joint account, or creditors without any secondary position, the interests of all concerned in the estate of the firm would appear to be to nurse and realize it to the best pecuniary advantage of all.

We believe the majority of the creditors think that to commence bankruptcy proceedings against an individual partner temporarily resident in this country, himself an American citizen, with no personal estate apart from his interest in his firm, when that firm's unpledged assets are all situate in the Republics of the Argentine and Uruguay, and which firm's assets our Court will not attempt to collect, is a proceeding not likely to be productive of pecuniary benefit to the creditors, whatever their exact interest in the estate may be.

It is not a question of one law for the rich and one for the poor, but merely a question of whether it is better for creditors to collect assets of a complicated nature in South America by a friendly arrangement, or to take proceedings in bankruptcy against an individual partner, which can have little, if any, effect except to occasion irritation and difficulty. That is a matter of opinion which formed no part of the subject of our first letter, which was simply to explain the exact nature of the pending proceedings.

We are, Sir, yours obediently.
Norton, Rose, Norton, & Co.

Graham-house, London, E.C.,
March 1.

Sir,

I quite agree with your remark in The Times of to-day that if great men fail for a sufficiently large sum it is a commercial danger to allow them to be "treated differently from small bankrupts," provided that in such cases it works no manifest injustice to creditors. But surely you cannot hold the utmost rigour of the law to be the wisest way when by invoking it you only secure a triumph for legal principle, to the complete detriment of all creditors or interests concerned? If this is the belief of the commercial world of London, the Baring guarantee should never have been given.

In reply to the letter of Mr. James Leslie Wanklyn, who, I presume, speaks no less for Mr. Gwinner than for himself, permit me to answer the question addressed to Mr. Norton. It is not the case "that a majority of creditors have joint-account transactions with Messrs. S. B. Hale and Co. and are subscribers to the Baring guarantee fund." Only one of the creditors has "a joint account"; the rest of them are in precisely the same position as the International Bank. As to their being subscribers to the Baring guarantee fund, they may or may not be.

I do not, and never did, nor does Mr. Norton suggest that the International Bank "have no remedy against S. B. Hale and Co. in the Argentine Republic". The International Bank had every remedy there the same as in any civilized country; and there exists in the Argentine Republic no law to enable debtors to escape or cheat their creditors. Mr. Gwinner's action should have been brought in Buenos Aires, in accordance with common commercial custom.

Mr. Norton has not been 'misinformed' as to the unanimity of the creditors of S. B. Hale and Co. They are, with the exception of Mr. Gwinner's bank, unanimous. The "bank" referred to as not having "signed the proposed agreement" has not signed it, not because they oppose or denounce the agreement or reject or condemn the propositions of S. B. Hale and Co., but because the bank have another way of treating the matter, which commends itself to their judgment as being more satisfactory to the bank and equally so to Messrs. S. B. Hale and Co. And the other "way" has nothing in common with the plan pursued by Mr. Gwinner.

Touching the question of "the statements that have been circulated during the past week for the purpose of affecting the credit of the International Bank," it is absurd to suppose that either party to a suit can, by "statements" born of the heat of litigation, affect the credit of the other. My credit is affected only by my acts, that of the International Bank by its report and the amount of "duty done" to its shareholders by Mr. Gwinner. Just here, however, permit me to explicitly deny that I have circulated or prompted any such reports, either for the purpose of obtaining sympathy or damaging my opponent.

What view the shareholders of the International Bank may take of Mr. Gwinner's conduct of their affairs in carrying matters to an "illogical conclusion with Mr. Sanford" will be formulated by future results. I am quite sure, however, that the public will not discover any great measure of "public service" in an action that can but have no matter what its upshot is—a strictly damaging result on the interests of the many in order to illegitimately attempt an advantage for the interests of the few.

I am Sir,
Your obedt. servant,
G. H. Sanford.

The following letter gives the view of the International Bank of London on the above matter:—

31, Lombard-street, London,
March 2.

Sir,

The International Bank of London, for whom we act in this matter, have not thought it necessary to take notice of the various communications which have lately appeared in your money article in reference to the above matter, having regard to the source from whence those communications came and the feeling they displayed. The letter, however, of Messrs. Norton, Rose, Norton, and Co., which appeared in your issue of the 1st inst., although to a great extent disposed of by the letter you publish to-day from an independent correspondent, raises some questions of law, upon which we may say we are, upon the advice and authority of an eminent member of the Bankruptcy Bar, quite at issue with Messrs. Norton, Rose, and Co. Whether the firm of Messrs. S. B. Hale and Co. be a foreign firm or not is immaterial if they have carried on business in this country within the last 12 months—a question of fact which will be dealt with in the bankruptcy proceedings which were instituted in London against all the other members of the firm of S. B. Hale and Co. at the same time as the bankruptcy proceedings were commenced against Mr. Sanford, and which proceedings are still pending. Messrs. Norton, Rose, and Co. are quite wrong in stating that no proceedings in bankruptcy had been commenced against the firm.

No doubt the receiving order made on Mr. Sanford's own petition does not constitute bankruptcy, but the presentation of that petition was an act of bankruptcy, and if Messrs. Norton, Rose, and Norton mean to advise that creditors of Mr. Sanford's joint and separate estate or others can still have valid dealings with Mr. Sanford after notice of the above facts, we entirely disagree with them.

The statement in Messrs. Norton, Rose, and Norton's letter as to all the creditors except the International Bank of London being in favour of discharging Mr. Sanford's separate personal liability is likewise quite erroneous.

There is no desire whatever on the part of the International Bank of London to unduly press matters either against Mr. Sanford or his partners, but as Mr. Sanford and his partners propose to give up some of their assets only and pay under alleged Argentine law the claims of one of their present partners' wives, exceeding in amount $2,500,000, in priority to and to the prejudice of the claims of their English creditors, the International Bank of London and other independent creditors not unnaturally object to such a proceeding.

We are, Sir,
Yours obediently,
Harwood and Stephenson.

The following letters relate to the controvery between Mr. C. H. Sanford and the International Bank of London:—

57½ Old Broad-street, E.C.,
March 3.

Sir,—We wrote at the request of our clients, Samuel B. Hale and Co., to state certain facts which are correct, not supposing that it would lead to any correspondence.

Messrs. Harwood and Stephenson, however, in their letter which appears in your issue of this morning, directly contradict us upon a fact which is easily ascertained. We said no bankruptcy proceedings had been commenced against the firm of Messrs. Samuel B. Hale and Co. They say that we are wrong in that statement, and that "bankruptcy proceedings were instituted in London against all the other members of the firm of Samuel B. Hale and Co. at the same time as the bankruptcy proceedings were commenced against Mr. Sandford, which proceedings are still pending."

Proceedings in bankruptcy can only be commenced by a petition. We have to-day searched the file, and no such petition has been presented either against the firm or Mr. Pearson (who is the only partner besides Mr. Sanford).

In face of this, it is unnecessary to continue the correspondence or deal with the remainder of Messrs Harwood and Stephenson's letter.

To close discussion we have submitted this letter to counsel before writing it, who advises that the above statement with regard to the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings is correct, and that neither Mr. Pearson nor the firm can have committed any act of bankruptcy, without which no bankruptcy proceedings can be properly commenced against a debtor.

We are, Sir,
Yours obediently,
Norton, Rose, Norton and Co.

March 3.

Sir,

The statements made by Messrs. Harwood and Stephenson in their letter to you of yesterday's date are so opposed to the real facts as to lead one to suppose that Mr. Gwinner has not told his solicitors the real state of the case.

I will only refer to the last paragraph, which reads:—"There is no desire whatever on the part of the International Bank to unduly press matters either against Mr. Sanford or his partners," etc.

When we consider that the International Bank of London have been hammering at me for nearly a year, that, after being non-suited once and paying my costs, they commenced a new action against me on the same day and have spent large sums in prosecuting their claim, that they finally presented themselves at the Court to ask for an official receiver, only to find that I had forestalled them by a few hours by present ing my own petition; and when we further consider that, at any time, they could have obtained by a friendly arrangement all that they could procure by means of the most successful suit, it is difficult to understand what Messrs. Harwood and Stephenson can possibly mean.

Again, they state that the bank objects to the settlement of the claims of the wife of one of the partners. This I flatly contradict as being their reason, for Mr. Gwinner knows that this settlement is made by other creditors from securities specially held by them, and over which the bank had no control. Mr. Gwinner further knows that one of his own board has agreed to make concessions, in order to avoid litigation in the Argentine and to bring about the arrangement in question, by which the bank cannot fail to be a gainer, as the surrender of securities for this purpose is not made by them, whereas the assets transferred by the firm are to be shared in by all "pro rata."

The public will, therefore, be able to form their own opinion with regard to the truth of the reason given by Messrs. Harwood and Stephenson.

Your obedient servant,
C. H. Sanford.

THE ENGLISH BANK OF THE RIVER PLATE.

THE PROPOSED RECONSTRUCTION SCHEME

The expected scheme for the sale of the assets of the bank to a new company has now been issued. In the introductory remarks it is pointed out that the scheme is based on the principle that the assets can be better realised by a Board of business men that under a forced liquidation. If this is sound under ordinary circumstances, the document proceeds, "a fortiori" must it be so under the exceptional circumstances of this case with the bulk of the assets in South America, where each branch is being liquidated as a separate concern for the benefit primarily of the local creditors, and the home and general creditors are therefore dependent largely on the surpluses to be realised from the assets of the respective branches.

The Official Receiver in his report of the 24th of November 1891, showed that as to the branches in Argentina the "moratoria" granted to the bank extending the due date of payment of its debts to July 1892, could not be renewed, and he went on to say that "if by July, 1892, the branches have not satisfied their creditors, judicial bankruptcy must ensue, and the opinion of persons acquainted with such proceedings there and with whom the Official Receiver has consulted upon the subject is unanimous that the realisation of the bank's assets in such manner must entail most serious loss."

The official Receiver in his report went on to say that the manager of the Buenos Ayres branch, by which the greater part of the Argentine assets was held, inclined to the opinion that sufficient assets could not be recovered to satisfy the claims of the local creditors before July, 1892, and he added; "The Official Receiver draws the special attention of the shareholders to this feature in the branches liquidation, and it will be for them to consider if measures can be taken to preserve to them the proper value of the assets in question." The Official Receiver in his report further says: In regard to the assets of this (the Buenos Ayres) branch, it is reported that the accounts, of which payment may be expected within a moderate time (say nine months), are estimated at £484,000; accounts requiring longer time for collection are estimated at £1,669,517, the bulk of which is regarded as recoverable if the realisation be allowed to extend over several years." The expression "bulk" is, of course, vague; a careful examination of the list of assets discloses many bad and doubtful ones.

The Official Receiver gave in his report the following summary of the assets and liabilities of the Buenos Ayres Branch:—Cash in hand, £133,788; assets realisable by, say August, 1892, £484,000; value of land and bank buildings, £80,000; making together £697,788. Assets realisable at longer periods, say from two to five years, say £1,669,517; total approximate amount of Buenos Ayres liabilities £836,890; estimated surplus dependent on realisation £1,530,415; but he stated at the meeting that £600,000 might have to be written off out of this apparent surplus, and all that can be said to be known is that a large surplus is likely to be realised with time, care and judicious outlay. The subscribed capital of the bank is £1,500,000, of which £750,000 has been paid up, leaving £750,000 uncalled. The Official Receiver has been advised by counsel that in addition to this liability the shareholders are also liable in respect of the note issue of the Montevideo branch, amounting to £160,000. This liability is not limited, but is, as counsel advises, unlimited. It follows that each shareholder who can pay would be liable not only for his own pro rata, but also to contribute towards making up the deficiency of those who cannot pay. On the other hand, the liability in question may be disputed, and in that case would probably lead to long and expensive litigation, ending with an appeal to the House of Lords. An important feature of the proposed scheme is to provide for a compromise of this question in connection with the proposed first issue of preference shares.

The scheme provides primarily for the payment of the claims of the creditors of the bank, which is the paramount object of it, and for the resuscitation of its business after 50 per cent. of the creditors' claims has been paid with interest, subject to certain conditions with regard to payment of the balance of the creditors' claims, and for safeguarding their interests against the risks connected with such resuscitation. It also provides for the issue of the first moiety of preference shares, but beyond this it is not possible to go at present, although it is contemplated that the remainder of the preference shares will be issued after recommencement of banking business. Not only would the new company, with such a moderate amount of capital as that issue would provide, be able to realise the assets to better advantage, but there is at present an undoubtedly good opening in the River Plate for a prudently-conducted English bank, consequent on the recent collapse of the National and some other banks in Argentina, and the National Bank in Uruguay.

Proposed scheme as to shareholders.

I. A joint stock company to be called the English Company of the River Plate, Limited, to be formed for purchasing assets, subject to the liabilities of the bank, with a share capital as follows:—75,000 ordinary shares of £10 each, £750,000; 150,000 cumulative 6 per cent. preference shares of £5 each, having priority both for dividend and in distribution of assets, £750,000.

II. As to the ordinary shares:—The ordinary shares to be issued to the liquidator for his nominees. Each shareholder of the bank will be entitled to one share of the new company for every share held by him in the bank. The amount thereon will be payable as follows:—£1 per share upon application, and the balance of £9 per share within 14 days of the confirmation of the scheme by the Court; but, at the option of the shareholder, £5 per share may be postponed as follows:—£2 10s. two months after date of order for confirmation of scheme and £2 10s. five months after same date, the shareholder paying interest thereon at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum from the date fixed for the payment of the £9 per share as above.

III. As to the preference shares:—The preference shares will be divided into two issues. The first issue of 75,000 preferences share to be issued to the liquidator or his nominees credited with £2 10s. paid on each £5 share, the balance of £2 10s. per share to be paid: £1 5s. per share upon application and £1 5s. within fourteen days of the confirmation of the scheme by the Court. These preference shares to be offered by the liquidator in the first instance to the shareholders of the bank "pro rata." Any preference shares not taken by them may then be issued to creditors or other person on the same terms.

IV. The first step to be taken by the shareholders will be the payment of £1 per share on the ordinary shares, £1 5s. per share on the preference shares, on application, corresponding to the amount of the first call made by the liquidator no further payment required until after the confirmation of the scheme by the Court. Pending the application to the Court for the confirmation of the scheme, the above payments will be placed to the credit of the joint account of the chairman of the committee of inspection and the liquidator, with Messrs. Glyn, Mills, Currie and Co.

V. It has been arranged with the liquidator that those shareholders who make the above payments to the joint account will not be called upon to pay the call of £2 5s due on the 29th February, 1892.

VI. In the case of shareholders of the bank who take their proportions of the ordinary and preference shares, the payments in respect of such shares will take the place of and exonerate them "pro tanto" from calls by the liquidator, including those to cover the unlimited liability in respect of the note issue of about £160,000 by the Montevideo branch of the bank.

VII. The issue of the balance (75,000) of the preference shares to be deferred for the present.

VIII. The articles of association of the new company to prohibit the issue of notes.

IX. All necessary contracts to be filed with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies before any of the above shares are issued.

Proposed scheme as to creditors.

1. The assets of the Bank to be handed over to the new company, and the amounts received by the liquidator in respect of calls on contributories to be paid to the new company as payments in respect of the shares of that company, to be issued as provided in this scheme.

2. The new company to issue to the liquidator for the creditors of the bank, who may come in under the liquidation, promissory notes for the amounts of their claims as at the commencement of the winding up, payable as to—25 per cent. six months from 31st March, 1892; 25 per cent. 15 months from 31st March, 1892; 50 per cent. 10 years from 31st March, 1892; power being reserved for the Board of the new company to repay all or any part thereof on giving at least one month's notice by advertisement; and after payment of the first 50 per cent. the Board shall on the like notice, notwithstanding the due date of the promissory notes for the remaining 50 per cent., pay the same by such instalments as the realised liquid assets of the company will in their judgment from time to time admit of, due regard being had to the proper conduct of the business of the company.

3. The said promissory notes of the new company to be transferable by indorsement in the usual way, and to carry interest payable halfyearly at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum, until the expiration of seven years, and after that time at 5 per cent. upon so much of the promissory notes as may remain until payment thereof shall be made. These promissory notes to be payable at the bankers of the company in London.

4. Interest at 4 per cent. on claims from the commencement of the liquidation to the 31st. March, 1892, to be paid by the liquidator in cash at the time of the delivery of the promissory notes.

5. The promissory notes to be issued in amounts of £1,000, £500, and £100 each, and scrip to be issued in respect of amounts under £100, such scrip in parcels of £100 to be exchanged for definitive promissory notes for that amount.

6. The new company to be empowered to borrow money and receive money on deposit at interest, but otherwise to be prohibited from doing new business until after 50 per cent. of the creditors' claims with interest shall have been paid.

7. Secured creditors to value their securities and the new company to have power to redeem them at such valuation. Their claims to be for the balance only of their debts after deducting the amount of such valuation. Creditors entitled under any foreign law to participate preferentially in any assets abroad to be entitled (provided they claim within four months after the confirmation of this sheme by the Court) to promissory notes only on the footing of payments received out of the foreign assets being accounted for to the company.

8. Power to be given to the new company to redeem any assets abroad by satisfying the creditors entitled to claim preferentially against such assets.

9. The Board of the new company to consist of six directors, to be appointed by the committee of inspection (four by the representatives of creditors, and the remaining two by the representatives of shareholders), these six directors to remain in office until 50 per cent of the creditors' claims has been paid. Thereafter until full payment of the promissory notes, the Board to be elected, three of them by the holders of promissory notes, and three by the preference shareholders. Until 75 per cent of the promissory notes shall have been paid the chairman of the Board shall be one of the directors chosen by the creditors, and in the event of differences of opinion arising so that the three directors chosen by creditors hold one view and the other three directors a different view, the decision of the first named shall prevail, but in any other case the decision shall be arrived at in the ordinary way by votes of the whole Board, the chairman having a casting vote. Subject as aforesaid the memorandum and articles of association to be such as the liquidator may approve.

10. The liquidator to provide for the costs of the liquidation and the costs of and incident to this scheme, and all other payments to be made by him before handing over the assets to the new company.—Financial Times.

BARON HIRSCH'S COLONIES.

B. Aires, March 30.

Mr. Editor,

In reply to your letter in to-day's edition, I would state that the remarks in your paper of the 24th inst. were the voluntary opinion and decision of Baron de Hirsch as regards immigrants unsuited for agricultural purposes, and no person can for a moment doubt the justice of the Baron's decision. I have come in contact with immigrants of all nationalities to this country during the last 30 years, and none, without exception, have been so cared for as the immigrants belonging to the Jewish Colonization Association. No well-intentioned person or persons need go to the Press for redress of any grievance, or supposed grievance, of any kind whatever, except they desire to do great wrong to the immigrants themselves, or to the society which is labouring day and night in their behalf. The undersigned receives the immigrants from 6 to 8 o'clock every morning except Saturdays, and gives full attention to any claims or grievances they might desire to bring before him; and in no instance has any just claim been denied immediate attention and redress from the Director of the Jewish Colonization Association, Dn Ad. Roth; but, on the contrary, he has been most lavish in attending to just claims. That work of this great magnitude should at the outset meet with errors and difficulties none can for a moment doubt, and the immigrants themselves can greatly relieve this position by patience and goodwill.

I am, dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,
Henry Joseph, Rabbi.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The secret and wonderful Cabinet Council on Tuesday night, as described by a morning colleague had not that stimulating effect on the Gold Eagles' wings which too impetuous Bulls fondly expected. The public are so tired of disturbing political talk that never comes to anything that they are now sceptical about every mortal thing. An earthquake or tidal wave might rouse them, but not much.

The weather looked and felt dubious yesterday, and our rheumatic readers groaned in flesh and spirit. Wiggins predicts a wet autumn.

The death is announced in France, of Señora Nieves Spano de Becourt, wife of a former Minister of France here, and youngest daughter of the hero of Talcahuano, Colonel Spano. The deceased lady had many friends here who will sincerely regret her demise. We tender our condolence to Mr. Charles Daireaux, her son-in-law, and family.

Some thirty ladies attended the auction at General Mansilla's quinta in Belgrano on Tuesday, and bid for everything with such tremendous spirit that their gentlemen competitors had to give way. One fair dame spent $5000, and went away; but returned and slashed away as much more. Another had a lawyer bidding against her for a picture; the ungallant limb of the law advanced on her bid five times, when she suddenly doubled hers and doubled him up. The Millennium for auctioneers has arrived. Ladies must be allowed to have their own way, in the auction room as elsewhere.

We find the following in the Manchestar Weekly Times of February 26th:—"Reynolds.—Information will be thankfully received, by his sister Emma, of Adam Reynolds, who left Manchester for Buenos Ayres about 30 years ago, and when last heard of was working for the Rev. H. R. Nicholson, 85, Tacuary, Buenos Ayres, S. A. The last letter received was dated Nov. 4th, 1868. American papers please copy.—Address Emma Richards, 16, St. Oswald-street, Rochdale Road, Manchester."

Pressure on our space by the S. B. Hale correspondence forces us to postpone till our next issue a report of the St. John's Ambulance meeting in the Barracas Institute on Tuesday evening. Sir Vincent Barrington's address was full of wit and humour and kept his audience laughing all night.

Teneriffe tobacco and cigars have jumped into a popularity that threatens the Imperial Havannah. The depot near the Creamery in Calle Cangallo is crowded all day with the smoking connoisseurs of the city.

The Damas de Beneficencia call on all those who know of persons entitled to compete for the prizes for Morality, Filial and Fraternal love, Industry etc., to be distributed on May 26th, to kindly communicate with them, up to April 15th.

We feel great pleasure in welcoming to this country the gallant Mr. Herbert Ward, commander of Stanley's rear guard in the East African expedition. Mr. Ward's book on Africa, the perusal of which afforded us keen enjoyment not long ago, is considered by most readers to be far superior to Stanley's.

The homeward passengers by the Tagus to-day will leave under Mitrista influences. The tender "Presidente Mitre" will take them half-way to the Tagus in the Roads, and the "General Mitre" the other half.

The astronomer Falb has scored a bull's eye in predicting the earthquakes on the West Coast, where they are now in a flutter all along the shore. At Valparaiso, Santiago, Iquique, Pisagua and Arica they had a "memento mori" in the shape of several rousing shocks. In Arica many walls were thrown down, and the sea showed such a tidal-wave appearance that the people fled like hares to the hills.

Pressure on our space to-day forces us to

Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "PASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to ITS EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool.
The "PASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed)
JOHN KELLIE.
It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.

Wednesday, March 30.

The alarming rumors that filled the speculative market took shape to-day, and the crookings in the hall were louder than ever. It appears that something has gone wrong in political quarters, that some gunpowder plot is brewing, and that we are on the eve of State of Siege. People are getting tired of this kind of thing and devoutly hope that some measures will be adopted to put an end to the present state of daily and nightly alarms. Too much leniency is displayed in certain matters which affect the public peace of mind, and the result is that the people do not believe in the strength and stability of the powers appointed to govern and insure security for life and property. Thus we already hear the echo of the ominous word—revolution—in the air, and all wonder if the Government have gone to sleep, whilst the geese are cackling at the doors of the Government House.

It is rumoured that a plot has been hatched to upset the present Government; we do not believe it. The stern fact is that a process of intimidation is going on in certain quarters in view of the Presidential election on the 10th prox. It is well known that a certain party comprises the conservative elements in this city, and that these are at a disadvantage when pitted against radical elements, for the simple reason that the former, who form the conservative social basis, are more easily frightened away from the polls than the latter. Under the circumstances, it is the duty of the Government to take steps that will give some pledge that order will be maintained, and that disorder will not be allowed to pass unpunished, as happened, unfortunately, last February.

In spite of all these dismal rumors, the gold market has great faith in the strength of the Government. There could be no better proof of this confidence than the fact that gold did not soar to-day, as expected by the majority before the opening of the ring. About nineteen thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the market opened very bullish at $56.90, rose to 57.10, but closed at 56.50, say 247½ premium. Sovereigns opened at $17.70, but closed at 17.62, say 249½ premium. The crowd of bulls and bullish outsiders trooped into the hall this morning with expectation of a very heavy rise; they were disappointed. Although the market opened very firm at first, the moment the rumor ran round that a state of siege was imminent, and that a summary end would be put to all the political processions through the streets and firebrand speeches, gold dropped to last night's rates and closed between buyers and sellers at $56½ to the ounce.

Patriotic Bonds were very weak this morning, closing at 59.30. La Plata Cedulas were slightly weaker than yesterday. Three million of new Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank will be thrown on the market on 1st prox.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

Mr. James Oliver was welcomed today on his arrival from Europe. He is at present staying at the Grand Hotel, which is at this moment crowded with fresh arrivals from Europe.

The local wheat market is in a critical condition. Wheat is superabundant for consumption as well as for export; buyers' limits are far from meeting the demands of sellers. In Rosario, as well as all along the river, we see the same state of affairs as here. Prices for good wheat range from 10$ to 11$ per 100 kilos: inferior qualities are a drug in the market. Many consignees here continue sending heavy parcels of wheat to deposit. The losses of these so-called "acopiadores" or rural speculators in the article are already very heavy. The "degringolade" in the price of maize is another feature of the falling tendency of the market. We may remind our readers that when maize was worth 11 and 12$ per 100 kilos during the harvest, prices paid for consumption as well as for export, we advised farmers to let go; those who sold then made a good business, but they were the few; but many farmers, consignees, and speculators held on; to-day we see old maize, once worth 11 and 12$, selling at 3 to 4$ per 100 kilos according to quality. Contracts for new maize are now being made; over 200,000 bags have been sold at 5 to 5½$ per 100 kilos; the new contracts to-day, however, are quoted at 4.60$ per 100 kilos, the maize delivered in July. Buyers are now drawing back and talk of 4$ per 100 kilos—if we reckon gold at 250% premium, we see that the price is very low indeed.

The losses suffered by the wool men this season find a counterpart in the losses of the dealers in cereals. We thus see this year a strange phenomenon—an enormous depreciation in paper and an incredible fall in value of produce; we may add to the above the heavy fall in the price of sheep and cows and assert that the crisis has invaded the rural districts and touched the very sources of the country's wealth. In the wake of all this we shall see a fall in the value and rent of land, just as we have witnessed in this city.

The general state of affairs outside is not satisfactory and it is idle to hide the fact. Meantime, advices from Europe are unfavourable and the shrewdest men in this market think that the social commotion in the working-classes in Europe must still more affect the prices of raw materials in the world—wools, hides, wheat, maize, etc., etc., have very dubious prospects of improvement this year at least, and it is well to bear this in mind. Our clips and crops may increase enormously, but the fall in the price level will defeat the expectations cherished by producers.

the capital of La Buenos Ayres Insurance Co., but says that the reduction can in no manner reduce the responsibility of the company for contracts engaged up to date.

The Land and Colonies Office have rented to Mr. P. Smith 20,000 hectares of State lands in the Santa Cruz territory for eight years at the rate of $60 per league per annum. The same office has rented four leagues in Misiones to Mr. R. Barreiro, to turn out yerba-mate; he must pay to the State 50 cents per 10 kilos of yerba.

The slaughter of the Buenos Ayres saladeros up to date is as follows:—

	Head.
Rocca & Co.....	110,000
J. B. Repetto.....	65,000
L. Repetto.....	47,000
Fernandez.....	28,200

Messrs Ramella & Co. sold yesterday, privately, the house Calle Moreno No. 631 for $47,000; buyer, Dr. Palacios.

Cheques of the Provincial Bank fell to 52 ½ discount to-day. Those of the other banks remained stationary. Discounts continued difficult all day.

The correspondent of the Bolsa telegraphed from London to-day that the colonial wool sales opened with a fall of ½d. Private telegrams announce that the fall amounts to 5 to 6%—no small decline. The effect on the market will be deplorable, as prices are very low and consignees weep when the popular "artists" make a further reduction in their limits of purchase. Thirtyfive thousand bales of wool were sold at the London auction yesterday: 8000 bales were withdrawn. The demand was lively and the attendance large.

A colleague states that one of our banking firms sold yesterday 750,000$ gold; this explains the brake upon the bullish market.

The gold market remained steady at the second ring; the bulk of the month's liquidation was settled at stationary prices. Fourteen thousand ounces were sold for to-morrow; the price opened at 56,00$, rose to 56.80, fell to 56.50, and closed at 56.60, say 24'4 % premium. Sovereigns opened at 17.60$ and closed at 17.56, say 2481 % premium. Stocks and shares were dull.

The Minister of Finance has fixed the rate of gold at 335 for payment of Customs dues.

The British steamer Albany, Captain Gough, of the David MacIver Line, will leave next week for Liverpool, with 190 mestizo horses, 30 Durham bullocks, and 500 mestizo Lincoln sheep. The greater number of these animals come from the well-known estancias of Messrs. S. Unzué and Carlos T. de Alvear, and have been carefully selected for the English market by Mr. E. J. Morrens, who accompanies the stock to its destination. This is one of the most important cargoes shipped in one steamer. The Albany, through her tonnage and her construction, is well adapted to carry this considerable number of animals; the ventilation is excellent, and the fittings are perfect, as the owners did not spare any expense that the animals may be delivered in good condition. Her skipper, Captain Gough, is an old hand in the Atlantic cattle trade.

Our London correspondent sends us the following excerpts:—

"Messrs. Baring Brothers and Co. have issued a circular to the bondholders of the Six per Cent Loan of 1889 of the City of Montevideo, on which the coupon which fell due on December 1, 1891, has not been paid. They state that, after protracted negotiations, they have succeeded in obtaining an offer, which is to be submitted to a general meeting of the bondholders, to be held on Friday week, March 11, at 1 p.m. Further bonds to the nominal amount of £100,000 will be created, ranking 'pari passu' in all respects with the present bonds, and the coupon which fell due on December 1, 1891, will be paid in these bonds at par. Both the old bonds and the additional bonds will be entitled to interest at 4 per cent till the end of 1894, 4½ per cent till 1897, and 5 per cent till 1900, after which date the full interest of 6 per cent per annum will be paid. From now to 1894 there will be no sinking fund, during 1895-1900 inclusive the sinking fund will be 4 per cent, and subsequently the accumulative sinking fund of 1 per cent will be resumed. Messrs. Baring have been informed by Mr Essex E Reade, their representative in Uruguay, that arrangements have been made to pay the coupon falling due on June 1, 1892, at the rate of 4 per cent per annum in cash, if this scheme is accepted before that date. A copy of the proposed agreement and forms of assent may be obtained at 8 Bishopsgate Street within.

"We understand that the South American and Mexican Trust (Limited) have decided, owing to the opposition of some of the debenture holders of Co. de Murrieta and Co. (Limited), to discontinue negotiations for the acquisition of the business of the latter. As there seems to be some misunderstanding as to the actual financial position of the South American and Mexican Trust (Limited), it may be as well to state that we are assured that their capital is intact after full allowance is made for depreciation, and that any call on the shareholders, which has been feared, is altogether out of the question."

CHARLES OLMI GRANDIOSE Auction

Of Art Treasures! A veritable Exhibition! An incomparable Show of Tapestry, Carpets and Smyrna curtains and woven articles. A Regal Residence! Admirable original paintings, truly artistic, by Caprile, Bertoletti, Pastiglioni, De Martino, Lancerotto, Michetti, Graner, Cusachs, and Dalbano, some of which obtained first prizes at the Barcelona Exhibition in 1888. Incomparable original Bronzes by Borbella and others. I declare, without hesitation, that nothing better as works of art has ever been offered for sale in this city. Superb Persian tapestries. Costly stuffs from the far East. Regal Smyrna carpets and curtains in every part of the house. Splendid Eastern door hangings. Regal chandeliers. Magnificent piano. Large Venetian mirrors. Costly Poule and inlaid furniture. Imposing Oriental drawing room. The study is simply unique, in this or any other country. Library of select works. Louis Quetorze drawing-room, Regal Certosino vestibule. Splendid Henri Deux dining-room. Grand Bedroom in the style of Louis XVI—three rooms thrown into one. Another for one person. Billiard room. Work-baskets, works of art and all the other valuable household belongings of a Spanish gentleman living at 884 Calle Bolivar, between Independencia and Estados Unidos.

People of taste should take advantage of this truly regal auction. It is a sheer impossibility to describe the masterpieces that are about to be sold: but connoisseurs can visit the house, certain to find therein textiles and original bronzes unapproachable as works of art. As for the gorgeous furniture and invaluable Eastern curtains, carpets, tapestry and textiles generally, suffice it to say that the former was made in Paris by the old firm of Krieger and Dienst, and the latter in Smyrna, to a private order.

I call the special attention of connoisseurs to the valuable Gobelin, hand woven tapestries, known by the names of Kelims, Kassaks and Kamschaska, in the gorgeous Oriental drawing-room, which cost a fortune, the style and decoration of the room being a fac-simile of the aristocratic saloons of Constantinople. As for the rest, the luxury and perfect taste apparent throughout the house are above all praise. Every article in it rivals another in value. This truly splendid house must command the attention of all, as it is absolutely exceptional.

On Tuesday April 5th

12 o'clock

at noon, I will sell at public auction for account of and by order from the owner, the above valuable collection of household furniture, complete details of which will be found in the SPECIAL CATALOGUES which can be obtained at the house itself, or in my mart at 566 Calle Piedad, on the morning of Thursday, 31st inst. From that day the house will be open every day for inspection, from 10 a.m. till 11 p.m. that is for five clear days before the auction, in order that those interested may have time to carefully examine and impress on their minds the excellence of the Gobelin tapestry, and genuine curtains and carpets from Smyrna, the costly make of the furniture, and the exceptional artistic value of the paintings and bronzes.
